

2017 Grenache Rosé Columbia Valley

90 points, Washington Wine Blog,
www.washingtonwineblog.com, July 2018

"Sourced from Grenache vines in the Horse Heaven Hills, this begins with aromatics of orange blossom, red cherry and rose water. The palate echoes the nose, with beautiful minerality, as these grapes were obviously picked early. I can't help thinking how this refreshing Rose will beautifully compliment chilled shellfish. Drink 2018-2022."
— Owen Bargreen

89 points, Wine Spectator, www.winespectator.com,
June 2018

"Vibrant and harmonious, with floral cherry and spice flavors that finish on a snappy note. Drink now." — Tim Fish

88 points, Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, www.Vinous.com,
November 2018

"Pale pink. Lively aromas of watermelon, red berries and wild herbs. Supple, easygoing and essentially dry but with a touch of sweetness to its red fruit flavors. Just a tad tart on the back end but more refreshing than hard." — Stephen Tanzer

88 points, Wine Enthusiast, www.winemag.com,
July 2018

"This vineyard-designated rosé brings aromas of strawberry, orange blossom and sweet herb. The palate is packed full of broad-feeding fruit flavors that deliver enjoyment." — Sean Sullivan

18.5/20 points, Best Buy, Rand Sealy's Review of Washington
Wines, www.reviewofwashingtonwines.com, July 2018

"This Rosé shows an iridescent pink color and enticing aromas of strawberry, Rainier cherry and pomegranate, cherry blossoms, lavender and whiffs of white incense. The flavors, as well, are appealing, with notes of grape skin, pomegranate seeds and stony minerals. The back picks up fraise and cerise liqueurs, followed by a Provençal-like lightly spiced dry finish." — Rand Sealey

Medals & Competitions

Gold – Washington State Wine Competition, 2018

Silver – Cascadia Wine Competition, 2018