

2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley

90 points, Robert Parker, www.RobertParker.com,
June 2018

“Wafting from the glass with notes of pencil shavings, black currants, dried herbs and loamy soil, the 2015 Columbia Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is medium-bodied, nicely concentrated and layered, with a good core of fruit, fine-grained but youthfully firm structuring tannins and a sappy finish. It's a persuasively characterful and complete wine from a challenging vintage.” – William Kelley

“Blackberries and black olives with some crushed tile undertones. Medium-bodied, firm and silky. Fine and easy. Drink now.”
– James Suckling

“The 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley (22 months in 30% new French oak) is another rich, textured, gorgeously layered beauty that offers loads of bang for the buck. Chocolate, spice, black fruits, and a touch of scorched earth all flow to a medium to full-bodied, supple, nicely textured Cabernet Sauvignon that's impeccably balanced. Drink it over the coming 7-8 years.” – Jeb Dunnuck
