

2017 Chardonnay

Evergreen Vineyard · Columbia Valley

90 points, Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, www.Vinous.com,
November 2018

"Bright yellow-straw. More complex and laid-back on the nose than the Columbia Valley Chardonnay, offering notes of lime ice, orange zest and spices. More bracing on entry, with its very dry soft citrus flavors complicated by saline minerality. Shows a slightly glyceric character but it's a bit tight, even bound-up, in the early going. This cool-site Chardonnay needs another year in bottle to unwind but it possesses the energy and tautness to maintain its spine."

— Stephen Tanzer

Medals & Competitions
