"This has pear aromas with marzipan and toasted brioche on the nose. The palate is wonderful with mouthwatering acidity and a wonderful richness. Brioche, Japanese pear and Macadamia nut flavors all mingle nicely together in the glass. This is a simply outstanding value." – Dr. Owen Bargreen

"Aromas of fig and spice carry the nose of this lush white. The palate brings a lovely sense of texture, with notes of honeycomb, fig and tropical fruit. A warm finish caps it off. Like most examples of this variety, it needs time in the bottle to be fully appreciated, but it has all the stuffing. Best after 2019."

"L'Ecole's Columbia Valley Semillon is remarkably consistent vintage after vintage in its apple scent and wheaty savor. The 2017, however, is leaner than usual, slightly more nervy, and long. It's a steal for early summer sipping."
– Patrick J. Comiskey

"Very pale, bright yellow. Lively scents of lemon zest, honeysuckle and spices. Then supple and flavorful on the palate, showing a distinctly pliant texture and a bit of alcoholic warmth. A substantial Sémillon for the gentle price." - Stephen Tanzer
