

2018 Chenin Blanc Columbia Valley

93 points, James Suckling, www.JamesSuckling.com
July 2019

“The fresh-pear and lightly poached apple aromas are attractive and lead to a palate that has a very crisp and brightly cut feel. The acidity holds it well. Good balance. Drink or hold.” – James Suckling

90 points, Best Buy – Wine & Spirits,
www.wineandspirits.com
August 2019

“The fruit for this wine is drawn from three old-vine sites, most notably Upland Vineyard, on Snipes Mountain, planted 1979. It has classic chenin aromas of grass and wool, with broad pear and mildly salty flavors. It needs air and food to open up; pour it with a duck-and-lentil salad.” – Patrick J. Comiskey

90 points, Best Buy – Wine Enthusiast,
www.winemag.com
October 2019

“The aromas are effusive, with notes of banana, papaya, herb, kiwi and fresh pineapple. Ripe, fuller-feeling tropical fruit flavors follow with enough acidity to stitch it all together.” – Sean Sullivan
