Wine Enthusiast, www.winemag.com, December 2019

"Sauvignon Blanc takes the lead in this vintage, making up 55% of the blend. Aromas of fig, spice, corn husk and herb emerge on the nose. The palate is considerably more giving, with a creamy feel to the fig and spice flavors that lead to a warm finish." – Sean Sullivan

"Bright, pale yellow. Aromas of orange blossom and white peach complicated by hints of anise, brown spices and flowers. A supple, lively, very dry wine with noteworthy inner-mouth tension to its flavors of stone and citrus fruits, underripe pineapple and minerals. Shows obvious Sauvignon cut but also boasts substantial palate presence. Finishes suave and long--again less phenolic than the 2017 version but plenty firm. (14.5% alcohol)" – Stephen Tanzer

18.5/20 points, BEST BUYS - Rand Sealey's Review of Washington Wines, www.reviewofwashingtonwines.com
December Issue 2019

"This 55% Sauvignon Blanc, 45% Semillon combination offers a straw-gold color and floral aromas of pear-apple, peach, Crenshaw melon, citrus, apple blossoms, honeysuckle, jasmine and white incense. The flavors are bright and vivid, combining the crispness of the Sauvignon Blanc with the creamy, slightly tropical texture of the Semillon. On the back, the wine builds up into a persistently mineral finish." – Rand Sealey

"Vibrant and zesty, with fresh fruit, offering lemon, honeysuckle and dried hay accents that glide on a crisp finish. Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc. Drink now. 1,400 cases made." – Tim Fish

"A delicious blend of 55% Sauvignon Blanc and 45% Semillon, the 2018 Luminesce Seven Hills Vineyard has a nose of lemons and pineapples, balanced with a floral and mineral expression. On the palate, the wine is medium-bodied, clean and focused, with citrus-laced flavors. The mid-palate is clean and expressive with a good structure and the right amount of acidity to keep things interesting, followed by a lingering, squeaky-clean finish. This wine is keenly priced, a great value. 1,400 cases produced." – Anthony Mueller

87 points, GOOD VALUE, Connoisseurs' Guide to California Wine, August 2019

"A bare bit of Sauvignon Blanc grassiness hides in the background here and is little more than an afterthought in what is an otherwise a very rich, slightly viscous, comparatively full-bodied offering that is focused on ripe melons and figs. Ripe to the point of showing a touch of late-arriving heat that asks for the ameliorating effects of service with food, it is a wine to pour with particularly flavorful fare and will turn the trick very capably with the likes of chicken seasoned with Moroccan spices."
