2019 Chenin Blanc 'Old Vines' Yakima Valley

91 PTS

Washington Wine Blog, Owen Bargreen - April 2020

Bright pear and starfruit with nutmeg infused Challah bread tones mark this expressive nose. The palate has marvelous verve and tension, with a light dusting of salinity that runs through the core of orchard fruit flavors. Drink 2020-2025.

Wine Enthusiast, Sean Sullivan - August 2020

This wine is consistently one of the best values from the state or the country for that matter. The aromas leap up, with notes of passion fruit, guava and kiwi. The palate is broad and flavorful, with vibrant, mouthwatering acidity. It's a stylistic shift from recent vintages, with the coolness of the season and October frost making it considerably more nervy and edgy.

Wine & Spirits, Patrick Comiskey - October 2020

From four vineyards, each planted before 1980, this 2019 is bright and grainy, with a citrusy scent, youthful acids and vibrant apple and pear flavors. For a picnic.
