2019 Semillon Columbia Valley

89 PTS

Vinous, Stephen Tanzer - December 2020

Pale straw-yellow. Sexy lifted aromas of orange blossom, spices and a hint of honey, plus cooler notes of lemon zest and fresh herbs. Supple and fairly substantial on the palate, offering mouthfilling soft citrus and peach flavors. A rather plump, easygoing style, with very ripe acidity. Quite dominated by the Sémillon in the early going. Not particularly complex but fresh and satisfying.
