2019 Merlot Estate Walla Walla Valley

94 PTS

JamesSuckling.com, James Suckling - April 2022

Aromas of baked plum, nutmeg, red licorice and suede. Full-bodied with fine tannins. Bright acidity. Juicy and balanced, with very good clarity and transparency. White pepper and clove add welcome complexity. Great length, too. Sustainable. Drink or hold.

Wine Enthusiast, Sean Sullivan - February/March 2022

This wine is a 50-50 split of Ferguson and Seven Hills Vineyards. The aromas are reserved, with notes of tea leaf, raspberry and cherry. The flavors are supple, showing polish, freshness and appeal. Fine-grained tannins back it all up. It's a pretty wine but don't be fooled—there's plenty of substance behind it.

Wine & Spirits, Patrick Comiskey - February 2022

Tightly wound and firmly structured, this Walla Walla merlot has a leafy, spiced-tobacco scent—a classic Walla Walla marker. It's powerful and lavishly oaked, needing time in the cellar to unwind. Then serve it with a plate of chicken sausages.
