2021 Merlot Columbia Valley

92 PTS

JamesSuckling.com, Claire Nesbitt - March 2024

I like the tar and bark undertones to the blackberry fruit. Some orange peel fragrance. It's bright and lively with a full body, ripe tannins and excellent freshness. Drink or hold.

A great wine under 30 dollars, the 2021 'Columbia Valley' Merlot has 12% Cabernet Franc blended in with a touch of Malbec and Petit Verdot. Dark chocolate covered cherry and roasted date with anise notes all fill the nose. The palate is soft and delicious with a refined texture. This is a killer value. Drink 2024-2032.
